THE SOURCE MODEL

The SOURCE Institute implements a unique and well-researched Performance Training Model:

Phase I: Foundation Phase
Flexibility and Stability

Phase II: Development Phase
Comprehensive Strength

Phase III: Transfer Phase
Sport-Specific Power and Speed

THE SOURCE PHILOSOPHY

While SOURCE primarily serves individual adolescents, adults, and teams, our overarching goal is to strengthen the larger community and enhance the quality of life of all those we serve through a collective effort to serve others.

THE SOURCE ASSESSMENTS

1. Structural Assessment: The Structural Assessment serves to examine structural alignment, functional movement patterns, and joint range of motion and stability.

2. Performance Assessment: The Performance Assessment allows your Coach to explore and monitor the physical qualities of strength, power, speed, and endurance.

3. SOURCE Assessment: The SOURCE Assessment represents a thorough examination of the client's motivation, mindset, and beliefs while helping to establish goals as well as possible strengths and challenges.

4. Golf Physical Screen: The SOURCE Institute houses Golf Fitness Professionals, certified by the Titleist Performance Institute. The Golf Physical Screen takes an in-depth look at the physical qualities of the golf swing and the biomechanical causes of the 12 major swing faults.
